It's News Here!

Opposition to No-Kill Meets Wednesday Night To Discuss Injunction

Local opposition to no-kill rules on the mainstream AuSable will meet at the American Legion Wednesday, Feb. 19, at 7 p.m. to discuss filing for a court injunction against the recent Natural Resources Commission no-kill regulation. Representative Ralph Ostling and Senator Connie Binsfeld, or their aides, are expected to attend the meeting. The public is invited to attend the meeting. Local opposition leaders against the no-kill ruling say they will need moral and monetary support for their goal to get an injunction and take the issue to court.

Appeal Denied of Convicted Armed Robber

An appeal by Darryl Rabideau was denied by the state court of appeals Jan. 29 in connection with his conviction of armed robbery. Rabideau, 23, and a 16-year-old companion were involved in a nine-hour massive manhunt in June, 1984, along the AuSable River. Rabideau had pleaded guilty to a charge of armed robbery in exchange for a dismissal of a charge of assault with intent to commit murder. He was sentenced to a prison term of 14 to 25 years. The appeals court found the Rabideau's claim that the sentence was based on an inaccurate presentence report is without merit. They also ruled the trial judge did not make an independent finding of guilt on another charge.

Smoking Banned at Commissioners' Meetings

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners passed a motion 4-1 banning smoking during their meetings. The ban started Feb. 13. The commissioners usually meet in a basement room in the county courthouse, and the small room has poor air circulation. Commissioner Bud Joyce made the motion. Commissioner Jeannette Kitchen cast the only nay vote. Commissioners Andie Neilson and John Miller were absent due to illnesses.

City Disconnects Siren at City Hall

The City of Grayling will be disconnecting the siren presently located on the roof of City Hall on or about February 15, 1986, due to recent damage to the city hall roof caused by vibration from the siren. There are no current plans regarding re-installation of sirens. However, the matter is under consideration for a possible future project, said Jerry W. Morford, Grayling City Manager.

School Board To Decide On Plan for 7-9 Graders

The Crawford AuSable Board of Education will vote on a plan for housing middle school students at a special meeting Monday, Feb. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the GHS library.

The plan calls for placing all seventh and eighth graders at the Grayling High School and all sixth graders at the Grayling Elementary School for the 1986-87 school year while the Grayling Middle School is renovated.

The Middle School Relocation Planning Committee told the board they thought it would be better to keep entire grades together and use school facilities rather than face the problems connected with using non-school facilities.

Dr. Carolyn DiPonio, a member of the committee, presented the plan to the school board at their Feb. 10 meeting. She said 1986-87 would be a difficult year, but the plan could work with the cooperation of everyone involved and the realization the next year will bring an ideal facility arrangement.

In order to house all 250 seventh and eighth grade students at the high school, every academic classroom and some non-academic rooms will be used as classrooms every single hour of the school day. In addition, two small classrooms will have to be added on to the new bus garage at the high school. The following year when they are no longer needed as classrooms, they will be used for storage. Superintendent Kent Reynolds said adding the two rooms onto the new bus garage was one of the least expensive means to provide the two extra classrooms needed. Additionally, the school district is hurting for storage space at the high school.

Because of the tight use of classrooms, the schedule for students at the high school won't be as flexible as in the past. Another problem in scheduling will be the use of the high school gym. With the middle school gym closed due to renovation, all middle school and high school athletic teams will be trying to make do with one gym.

The sixth graders will use the five new classrooms being built at the Grayling Elementary this summer.

Ohio Guard Uses Camp For Winter Survival Training

Peg Hanley
196th Public Affairs Detachment
Ohio National Guard

Seems the Ohio National Guard couldn't get enough of Camp Grayling during Annual Training '85. More than 170 guardmembers returned to Grayling in January and February to participate in winter survival training for six days.

Previously the survival training was conducted at Camp Perry in Ohio. But winter weather conditions at Camp Perry are no match when it comes to the 30-inch snows and minus zero degree temperatures here at Grayling.

Also, the Ohio and Michigan guards have established a good working relationship over the years according to Sgt. Maj. James Loeding, Operations NCO at Camp Grayling.

In addition to the snow and cold, the camp provided guardmembers with barracks when they weren't out in the field and provided ammunition during range firing.

The troops spent two nights out in the field living in arctic tents, skiing from objective to objective in order to perform their cold weather missions.

For many Ohio guardmembers accustomed to the sands of Grayling the 30-inch blanket of white took some getting used to. There was some slip-sliding the first day when the soldiers donned their skis. But by the week's end, as the troops prepared to return to Ohio, there were several soldiers already planning their return trip to Grayling for Winter Survival '87.

Camp Shawono Proposal Could Increase Payroll By $800,000 Annually

A proposal to change Camp Shawono to a medium security training center and regional maximum security holding center for juveniles could add another 20-25 jobs at the camp. The proposed change with extra jobs could bump the annual payroll at the camp an additional $800,000 above the current level. There are 23 employees working at Camp Shawono currently.

The building additions and remodeling needed to convert the minimum security camp into a medium security camp are estimated to cost about $800,000. The medium security training center could house 40 juveniles.

The addition needed for the maximum security holding center with a 15-person capacity would cost an estimated $1.2 million.

The funds for construction and operation come from the state. Under the proposal, Camp Shawono would only serve juveniles from the upper 48 counties in Michigan. The ages of juveniles would range from 12 to 17½. The maximum security detention center would hold both female and male juveniles.

Department of Social Services officials feel reasonably sure they will receive funding for the proposal.

If funding is approved without much delay, they hope to start construction in the spring and have the medium security facility in operation by October. They're pushing to have the regional holding center in operation by next January.

Study Shows Surprising Number of Households Here Earn More Than $35,000

A 1985 report showed more than a quarter of households in Crawford County having buying incomes of more than $35,000 a year.

The 1985 Survey of Buying Power, by Sales & Marketing Management, an independent research publication, ranked Crawford County 2nd in northern Michigan with 26 percent of households having a buying income of $35,000 or more a year. Only Grand Traverse County with 26.4 percent of its households having buying incomes of more than $35,000, had a higher percentage than Crawford. Buying income is simply income minus taxes.

The study used 1984 data to show 31.1 percent of the households in Crawford County had buying incomes from $10,000 to $20,000. About 26.4 percent had buying incomes from $20,000 to $35,000. About 16.5 percent had buying incomes from $35,000 to $50,000 and 9.5 percent had buying incomes of $50,000 or above. The study listed the county's population at 10,500 with about 3,600 households.

In comparison, Roscommon had a population of 18,400 with about 7,600 households. In Roscommon, 36.6 percent had buying incomes of $10,000 to $20,000. About 23 percent had buying incomes from $20,000 to $35,000. About 8 percent had buying incomes from $35,000 to $50,000, and 1.9 percent had incomes of $50,000 and above.

Otsego County had a population of 16,000 with 5,500 households. In Otsego, 28.1 percent had buying incomes of $10,000 to $20,000. About 35 percent had buying incomes of $20,000 to $35,000. About 15.8 percent had buying incomes of 15.8 percent, and 7.2 percent had buying incomes of 7.2 percent.

The average household buying income for Crawford County was $21,036 - fourth in northern Michigan. In our immediate area, Otsego was a bit higher with a $22,719 average household buying income. Roscommon at $14,639, Kalkaska at $17,900, and Oscoda at $14,011 were all quite a bit lower than Crawford.

In total retail sales, Crawford ($39,821,000) was far below Otsego ($91,261,000), Roscommon ($93,268,000), and Kalkaska ($47,131,000), but above Oscoda ($31,333,000).

From Our Corner...

Frustrated? you bet...the ol' fella didn't have any notes for this week's turkey and we are paying for it now...in fact, we went into the archives to pull an issue from last year at this time to see if we could swipe a bit of it and no one would know the difference...

The only thing worthwhile was an account of the weather we were having, which is always a timely topic in Michigan...weather is the only thing more changeable in northern Michigan than women...

So for our weekly weather report we will refresh your memory of what it was like last year at this time...

Excerpts from 1985...it started to snow last Sunday night and it has snowed some everyday this week and we are back to Sunday afternoon and it is still snowing...

We got so much snow and high winds that drifted roads closed and forced the cancellation of school Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday...we're sure the teachers remember that week, and the parents who had to find babysitters...

Just for the record...this year it is just about opposite...we received bundles of snow in December and the first of January, but, since a January thaw, the weather has been real pleasant if you are an Eskimo...not much snow, but cold...

One more excerpt from last year...With the snow banks at the intersections around the city it makes driving a bit precarious, one has to be on the alert at all times, and the packed snow like ice makes stopping that much hazardous...that is no different than we are going through this year...

Sometimes it's fun to be forty...we attended Paul Lerg's 40th birthday get together a week ago in one of the conference rooms at the Holiday Inn...the place was packed, and it seemed like everyone was having fun, I don't know about Paul...we are sure, that MR. Lerg will remember this milestone in his life...

An Idle thought...although not being a fisherman, I do feel that the local property owners along the AuSable and our local people who are fishermen got a raw deal when the Natural Resources Commission voted for the No-Kill on the Holy Waters of the AuSable, when everything was against that decision except a power group downstate that shoved the decision...

I cannot imagine the commission's ruling when the people here that pay taxes don't have a voice in what should or should not happen in their environment...

Just shades of where 90% of Michigan's taxes goes...Detroit and other metropolitan cities...

The argument is, we pay more taxes than you do...right, no argument, keep your taxes, we'll keep ours, and leave our surroundings alone, and we will leave yours alone...

I'll take the AuSable River anyway to Woodward or Jefferson Avenue...

I really don't know how one can fight the commission, they are appointed...but, maybe the appointee should be contacted by letters to the governor...

Sometimes I have to wonder how one gets on the Natural Resources Commission...do you have to be an avid sportsman, fisherman, hunter, trapper, etc., so you know what should be controlled in our wild habitat...or, does it just mean you happen to be in the right political party at the right time...it's a farce...

As much as I know of the wild kingdom, I should be a sure in...the problem is, I would have to declare if I am an elephant or a donkey...that disqualifies me right now...I'm neither...

If you are against the No-Kill decision by the NRC, write the governor, MAYBE he will veto the decision...

Just a note: Editorial commentary letters to the editor implies neither endorsement nor approval of thought by the Avalanche and staff...

One more goes to bed, and with it our goodnight to T.J., Steafny and Amber, and to all, have a nice weekend...TIME TO THINK SPRING! nuf of the white stuff...

ECUMENICAL LOVE

What is ecumenical love? How does love work in the ecumenical movement? Love is claimed to be the motivating force in all ecumenical activity. Since love cannot be based upon truth, it becomes based upon unity. The central question then concerning a test for love is not truth, but unity. The resulting evaluation of spirituality is unity because of love. If one is not a member of the ecumenical movement he is unloving and divisive. When truth and unity conflict, the one choosing unity is showing love, and the one choosing truth is showing hate. This is ecumenical love.

To speak of love without truth is not biblical, christian, nor reasonable. Jesus Christ was not only love personified. He was also truth personified. (John 14:6). He sets us free through His truth. (John 8:32). The Holy Spirit who endwells every Christian is called the Spirit of truth. (John 15:26). He guides us into all truth. (John 16:13). We therefore worship God in spirit and in truth. (John 4:23). The church is called the pillar and ground of the truth. (1 Tim. 3:15). When we love, we are to love in truth. (2 John 1 & 3 John 1).

The church of antichrist will form because of a loss of love for the truth. (2 Thess 2:10) Turning the truth of God into a lie is the mark of human depravity. (Romans 1:25). Damnation of souls results from believing not the truth. (2 Thess. 2:12). Turning from the truth is one of the most unloving things one can do. Jesus said, "If ye love me, keep my commandments." (John 14:15). John, the disciple of love, wrote, "Let us not love in word...but...in truth." (1 John 3:18). Love is more than talk, it is obedience to truth.

The ecumenical movement has been publicly pushing for anti-apartheid action in South Africa. Do they put their money where their mouth and heart are? The World Council of Churches remains a key supporter of Communist/terrorist groups in Africa through special funds to Combat Racism. "The New American" (11/4/85) reports, "Recent Red recipients of WCC money include the South West Africa People's Organization ($110,000), the African National Congress ($77,000), and the Pan Africanist Congress ($33,000).

Jesus said, "Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them." (Matt. 7:20). Ecumenical love will lead to international hatred, bondage, and death for millions through liberation theology or "Christian" Marxism. (Hear "The Bible Speaks" at 7:57 a.m. on WQON 100 FM)

Grayling Long Distance Calls Stay with AT&T

Customers in Grayling will continue to use AT&T when dialing one-plus for long distance calls, according to Bob Kowalski, division manager for General Telephone.

Kowalski explained General Telephone is making major equipment modifications required to offer a service called equal access to customers. Equal access enables customers to select a preferred long distance company for handling "one-plus" calls beyond the area served by their local telephone company.

Kowalski said GTE notified all long distance companies operating in the region six months ago, explaining it could make equal access available on May 31, 1986. Long distance companies that wanted to serve local customers on that date were required to notify GTE by January 31, he said.

"No new long distance companies placed orders for equal access connections to our local network," Kowalski said. "That means customers who place their long distance calls by dialing one-plus will continue to be served by AT&T."

Kowalski explained long distance companies are free to choose which markets they serve. Often those decisions are based on market studies and such factors as the cost of serving the area, he said.

Date Change For Mercy Safety Program

Basic Life Saving and Home Safety for infants and small children will be the topic of a two-part program offered by the community services office of Grayling Mercy Hospital, February 25 and March 4, 1986. The informational session begins at 7:00 p.m. and will cover such topics as procedures for choking, coronary pulmonary resuscitation (CPR), basic first aid, how to use your physician and what to do for poisoning.

Pat Hanson, community service coordinator at Mercy Hospital, said the program is open to parents and any other individuals who have a child care responsibilities such as babysitters and day care center employees.

Ms. Hanson said the instruction received in this program will be of value to the participants, given the availability of medical attention in our rural area. "Even though the ambulance crews in our area respond very quickly, it often is not quick enough for a choking child," Ms. Hanson said. Accidents are the most common cause of childhood emergencies, according to Ms. Hanson, and the leading cause of death in the first 15 years of life. Many childhood deaths could be prevented every year if more parents and childcare providers were trained in basic life saving techniques, she said.

The program has been organized through the cooperative efforts of Mercy Hospital's Bruce McGuire, Cardiacpulmonary Services, Charles Langenderfer, Pharmacy and Kathy Zelinsky, RN of Obstetrics.

Interested individuals should pre-register for the program by calling the community services office, Mercy Hospital (517) 348-5461, ext. 120. A two dollar fee will be required to cover the cost of materials provided to participants.

Any Senior Citizen interested in coming to play in the kitchen band, practice every Thursday at 2 p.m. at the COA building. A lot of fun. You should hear the piano player, she is fantastic. And the sound you get from the kitchen instruments. Come out and try it.
If you'd rather sing then come out on Tuesday and join the songbirds at 2 p.m. A good time is what you may need now after being cooped up indoors, with the cold weather we've had. We may still have some more, but we can think Spring. Hope to see some new ones out. Have a good day.

Tues., Feb. 25 - 5 p.m. will be the Traverse City Kitchen Band. Come out for dinner, if you can. On the menu will be Pork Chops, cole slaw, applesauce and grape juice, jello/fruit.

Reminder starting March we will be serving dinner at 5 p.m. instead of 4:30. Friday the Noon meal will remain the same.

Mind-boggling Figures

by Richard Milliman

HOW MUCH is a trillion dollars...or for that matter, a trillion of anything?

Well, a trillion dollars is the size of the new federal budget proposed by President Reagan — who is, in case some of us should forget for just a moment — supposed to be a conservative, penny-pinching public official.

A trillion dollars is so much money that it is impossible to imagine — except it's the amount Mr. Reagan has proposed the federal government spend in the coming year.

How much is a trillion dollars? Well, it's a figure "one" with 12 zeros coming after it. It is 1,000 billions. It is 1,000,000,000,000. It's a whole lot of money.

ACTUALLY, Mr. Reagan's budget proposal is less than a trillion dollars...but it's so close that nobody's going to argue over a few million here or there. As the late Sen. Everett Dirksen used to say: "You take a million dollars here and a million dollars there and before you know it, you're talking about a lot of money." That's not exact, but it's as close to Mr. Dirksen's words as Mr. Reagan's budget proposal is close to a trillion dollars.

One other thing that boggles the mind is that even though the budget is for a trillion dollars, it still reduces most existing spending programs. Exempt from the axe are defense and social security, both of which would get some increases under Mr. Reagan's plans.

Think what the budget would be if everybody got everything they wanted. Now, my friends, that would really be mind-boggling.

THERE IS MUCH argument about the Gramm-Rudman program, with some people in favor and some opposed and some in favor because it's better than nothing.

What Gramm-Rudman does, in short, is to set a few limits on federal spending by limiting the federal deficit to a certain figure. If the congress passes a budget that exceeds that predetermined deficit figure, then cuts will be made all over the place to get the spending down so the deficit will be no higher than previously determined.

There are some exceptions, of course. Defense is one. Social security is another.

But in principal, it seems to me, Gramm-Rudman makes sense. That's the way it works out in real life. If you don't have the money, you don't spend it. Or if you do spend money you don't have, you run up a deficit. Sooner or later, you can't borrow anymore and you have to stop spending. Really, it's pretty simple.

IN MY VIEW, though, the cuts should apply everywhere, including defense and social security, too. Those aren't popular views, however. But why not?

The other option, of course, is to get more revenue. That means raise taxes. That's what happens out in real life, too, and probably Congress — and the President — will wind up raising taxes, too, as well as cutting spending.

That is, these steps are inevitable if the government is to limit and reduce and eventually eliminate deficits. Tighten your belts, or pay more, or some combination of the two. Really, that seems pretty simple, too.

But it's much simpler in the saying than in the doing.

ALTHOUGH SOME spending agencies are exempt from Gramm-Rudman cutting, Congress itself is not. Already some cries of anguish are being heard in anticipation of Capitol Hill cuts.

According to a recent Associated Press story, that may have been an oversight. AP quoted one Capitol Hill source: "I think the universal reaction has been, 'Hey, wait a second, that's us. Who's the idiot who didn't exempt Congress?'" Naturally, this AP source wished to remain anonymous.

Some congressional offices will have to reduce services to constituents, AP reported, quoting Mark Miller, a congressional aide: "Things are just going to slow down, albeit with some loss of service to constituents. There's so much mail to move and so many things to do. With fewer people it's just going to be done more slowly."

The wonder of it all is that the constituents probably won't even notice the difference, and probably won't care if they do. Most of us feel we're getting too much government as it is. But it could be worse — we could be getting all the government we're paying for.

MERCY MANOR OPENING — More than 100 persons attended an open house for the newly-named Mercy Manor — the extended care wing of Mercy Hospital Grayling. Sister Mary Ellen Howard, President and Chief Executive Officer of Mercy Hospital, cuts a ribbon in the completely re-decorated Mercy Manor. Also on hand are Gil Ruiz, Executive Vice-President and Chief Operations Officer, Glenda Jacobs, Mercy Manor coordinator, and Paul Lerg, Mercy Hospital Board of Directors member.

Super Lotto To Begin This Spring

Lansing - Beginning in April, the Michigan Lottery will offer players a second Lotto game which features higher jackpot, second and third prize shares.

Announcing plans for "Super Lotto" at a news conference here today, Lottery Commissioner Michael J. Carr noted that it will be a companion to, rather than a replacement for, the present Lotto game. The start-up date will be announced sometime next month.

"Super Lotto, with weekly drawings held each Saturday evening, will challenge players to select six numbers from 1 to 44," he said. "In most respects, players will find it very similar to our present 6 of 40 game which will go back to weekly drawings each Wednesday."

"Shares in our regular Lotto Jackpots have averaged some $1.7 million since the start of the game," Carr said. "Super Lotto should provide average Jackpot shares of more than $3 million. Second prize shares will be an estimated $2,500 compared to $1,600, and third prize shares will average an estimated $90 instead of $50."

"The odds of matching all six numbers drawn to win or share the Jackpot in Super Lotto will be just over one in seven million. This compares to odds of about one in 3.8 million in the present game," he added. "There also is a corresponding increase in the odds for matching five or four of the numbers to win shares of second and third prize pools."

Carr said subscription play would not be offered for Super Lotto, but noted that the Lottery is looking into the feasibility of offering advance wagering.

"Access to game terminals is much greater now than when our original Lotto game started," Carr added. "So players should find it convenient to purchase tickets at any of the approximately 2,500 retailers statewide who will have terminals by the start of Super Lotto. About 1,700 terminals were in operation for the beginning of our existing Lotto game back in August of 1984."

Present subscriptions for the 6/40 game will remain in effect, with subscribers receiving official notice during the next few weeks of the return to weekly drawings. When the Super Lotto start-up date is determined, they will receive a second mailing containing information to help them figure the length of time left on their subscriptions.

Carr also noted that the Lottery will be using the same drawing equipment as in the present Lotto game, and tickets will be issued by retailers using existing terminals and bet slip readers following some modifications.

He said Super Lotto is expected to help the Lottery surpass its overall 1986 fiscal year sales goal of some $1 billion, providing more than $500 million in prizes and $430 million for K-12 education. Included in that sales figures is a 30 percent increase in Lotto revenues to $446 million.

"In considering extension of our Lotto game play, we closely studied experience in other states," Carr said. "We elected to leave players a choice of games."

"If they want to try for larger prizes against longer odds, they will play Super Lotto. But, if players prefer a greater chance to win smaller prizes, they can continue with our present Lotto games," he concluded.

Through the 98th Lotto drawing on February 1, approximately $320 million had been won in the game. Included was some $224 million going to 129 Jackpot winners on 20-year payment schedules, about $43 million to more than 27,000 Second Prize winners, and approximately $52 million to some one million Third Prize winners.

Fiscal Agency Says Surplus Supports Early Tax Cut

keeping the same dates.

Also, Governor James Blanchard announced last month the creation of a citizen's escrow fund which would hold all income tax revenues collected in excess of 4.6 percent starting on March 31, if the Legislature could not agree on a tax rollback by then.

The SFA revenue projections for 1986-87 include $25 million from the tax amnesty and stepped-up enforcement program, in addition to $60 million this year.

That program, politically tied to the tax rollback issue, is temporarily stalled. The Governor reflects only $50 million in revenues this year; none in 1986-87.

The SFA budget analysis for 1986-87 said the general fund will have to add $18.9 million in general fund spending beyond the Governor's recommendations for school aid, due to slower growth in dedicated sales taxes, and $12.2 million in payments to the budget stabilization fund.

Among other budget problems, the agency projected higher welfare caseloads than did the Governor, and said the Gramm-Rudman deficit-cutting law will cost Michigan $41.2 million in federal revenues, with the largest share ($12.5 million) from highway aid.

The SFA projection said AFDC welfare caseloads will be 4,900 higher than DMB estimates in the current year, the major source of $15.7 million more in required general fund spending than administration estimates, and 5,800 higher in 1986-87, at a cost of $15.3 million.

The higher caseload and cost estimates for general assistance for the two years is 1,400 ($16.3 million) and 7,700 ($20.4 million).

A Senate Fiscal Agency (SFA) analysis for the current and proposed budget years shows a February 14 income tax rollback is possible, agency director Patty Woodworth reported recently.

Presentation of the analysis to the Senate Appropriations Committee came as House leaders scheduled a meeting of the Taxation Committee to act on a March 31 rollback.

While the SFA economic projections over both 1985-86 and 1986-87 are similar to those of the Department of Management and Budget, it expects healthier growth in 1986, helping produce a September 30 surplus that is $133.4 million higher than the administration's.

A February 14 rollback would cost $53 million more than a March 31 date.

The $166.7 million surplus projected by the SFA for 1985-86, if correct, would even permit a rollback as of January 1.

The March 31 House proposal permits the earlier rollback if the surplus is at least $150 million. The surplus includes an estimated $30 million in lapses, which are not identified in the DMB estimates.

Woodworth said SFA economists expect slower growth in 1987, resulting in a surplus in the two fiscal years combined of $128.4 million higher than DMB estimates.

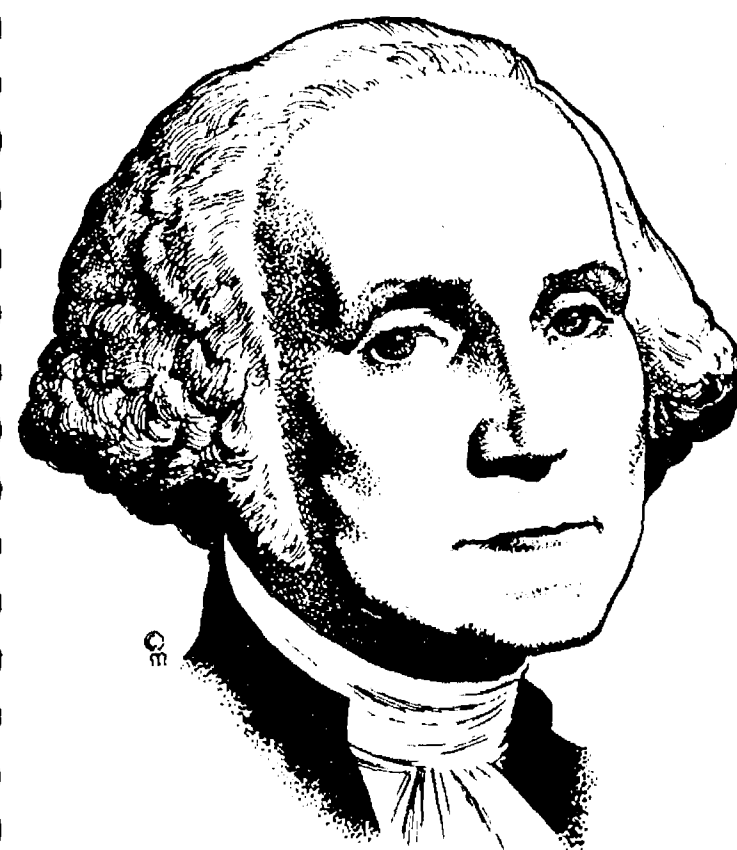

The Taxation meeting was called after Speaker Gary Owen (D-Ypsilanti) and Minority Leader Michael Busch (R-Saginaw) met with committee leaders to discuss the inability of House and Senate members to reach agreement on a rollback proposal.

Taxation Chair Lynn Jondahl (D-East Lansing) said discussions earlier in the week with Senate Finance Chairman Norman Shinkle (Lambertville) had failed to provide a basis for a new rollback agreement.

Shinkle said he would not meet with Mr. Jondahl unless he could get an answer to objections to the Senate's proposed February 14 rollback date.

Jondahl said Shinkle had asked the House to come up with another proposed rollback date, while Jondahl offered to discuss changing the House formula while

Herbal Corner

Do you remember that long black piece of candy called Licorice? What they sell today is okay, I guess; but what we had about 30 years ago was truly good licorice candy.

Well, darlin', in our spice rack we have an herb called Licorice, and I am amazed how many times a customer will look into the bid and expect to find that long black candy. The licorice candy was made with black strap molasses and anise flavoring. Today it may be made with black strap molasses and artificial flavoring, but anything else? Count on it.

Licorice root is used for a variety of reasons, i.e.; reportedly for coughs, laxative for children, and largely for bronchial problems. But Licorice root has also been beneficial for smokers trying to quit the habit. Problems will arise with the throat from pains to difficulty of swallowing when one quits smoking. Licorice root has been known to curb the pains in the throat and help with the excess saliva. This is usually done by sucking on a small piece of the root.

The root has a substance called glycyrrhizin, which is reputed to be 50 times as sweet as cane sugar. Though much sweeter than sugar, Licorice root has the power to quench thirst rather than increase it as those beverages with sugar. Cold Licorice tea is used in place of water in many European industries, especially in iron and steel mills, where workers must endure considerable heat.

Licorice is also a mild laxative in adults. Remember this if you develop a need to visit the wash room more than usual after having digested those licorice-flavored cough drops over a long period of time. Licorice root is also reputed to be a demulcent, which is probably why it is soothing on the throat.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

By Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

With the snow once again blown and melted off the trees a number of little things become obvious. Bird nests. Have you ever considered the variety to be found in bird nests? For example, the Bald Eagle uses the same nest each year and over a period of years the nest becomes very large, since the Eagle adds twigs and large branches each year. A nest may weigh up to a ton.

On the other hand the nest of a Ruby-throated Hummingbird is small enough to fit inside the circle formed by your thumb and forefinger. The nest is built of wooly chunks of leaf and grass held together with bits of spider web or plant fibers. The nest is covered with bits of lichen and resembles a knot on a tree limb more than a nest.

The next of a Baltimore Oriole is a pocket-shaped hammock constructed of string, hair and plant fibers. Usually attached to small limbs high in a tree. Can you imagine the ride during a strong wind and yet I've never heard of an Oriole nest being destroyed by the wind unless the limb or tree broke.

Did you know that the nest of a Chipping Sparrow is almost always lined with horsehair; or that a Red-winged Blackbird builds a nest into a deep pocket formed of cattails and pliable reeds bent into a circle. The Whip-poor-will just ignores the nest building process altogether by laying its two eggs on leaves in heavily forested areas, so unless you are sharp eyed, its nest or rather eggs will never be seen.

The Robin is probably the least bothered by our activities and its nest built in a bush near a window provides children an excellent view of the nesting and fledging process.

DEPOT-UPDATE — The Crawford County Historical Society, which is spearheading the renovation of the Railroad Depot and the moving of the old Historical Museum to the depot, would like to inform you of our progress. There has been a new heating system installed in the downstairs portion of the building and there is a work crew from Camp Lehman repairing and painting the inside walls, floors, and ceilings. We are looking forward to receiving a 1920's Railroad Caboose, donated to us from the Detroit-Mackinac Railroad. The caboose is presently located in Tawas City, and will soon be delivered to Grayling. We would like to encourage you and Local Service Clubs to participate in fixing up one of the 12 rooms, located upstairs in the Depot. We greatly need and would appreciate your support in this renovation project. We have applied for a Grant from the Institute of Museum Service. We hope to hear a reply sometime soon. If anyone has or knows the whereabouts of any documents, photographs or Artifacts that they would like to loan or donate to us, please contact Robert J. Ruddy at 348-7333. Remember that all contributions are tax deductible. We encourage you to become a member of the Crawford County Historical Society. Please look for application in this issue of the paper.

"With farming, one wrong step and it could cost you down the road. The same is true with tax preparation, and that's why I always go to H&R Block. ## Relationship Revisited

The PARADOX struck me suddenly. Here we are in a time of widespread and hungry searching among the young and not so young for something called "Meaningful Relationship." It is a something not clearly defined, scarcely delineated; something felt, in some vague way, as a desire, a need for a human connection that seems what? Real in a time of superficiality? Dependable in a time of rapid change? Sensitive understanding in a time of depersonalization? Caring at moments of frustration or discouragement or feeling pressed by some life circumstances?

And here we are at a time when a whole new generation has entered the human service professions, committed to helping other human beings in one of the many areas of human need.

There are young physicians (in a variety of specializations), social workers (in an equal variety), lawyers (especially those in public and poverty law), teachers (from preschool onward), nurses (general and specialized), corrections workers, recreation workers, therapist for psychological, neurological, physical or skill disabilities of many sorts, clergymen of all faiths, the range of "people helpers" is an astounding one.

They are equipped to undertake their tasks with at least beginning competence, by their formal education plus (often) supervised practice experience; or they are essentially beginning learners, partially prepared so as to be able to carry their necessary auxiliary roles as aides or paraprofessionals.

Most of them feel they "like people" and that they want to be of help to them. Most of them have some concern about the human condition and ideals about wanting to do some good in the world, even if that may be limited to the relatively small number of human beings they will influence in the course of their professional ministrations. Most of them had very little preparation for what is the first problem to be solved in being of help to another person: how to connect, how to come into some alliance in a vital way with the person who wants or needs help. Many of them are themselves at a stage of life when the problems of finding, forming, developing and sustaining personally fulfilling relationships have yet to be resolved. And many of them are quite unprepared for what they often find: that human beings are not always willing or able to accept and use the aids offered, to follow the prescriptions given them; that the compromises people often must make are not always palatable; that the way to a troubled person's head is often through his heart.

Special Olympics Basketball

Grayling's Lori Bergy scored 19 points to lead the Northland Tigercats to a victory in their opening game at the Special Olympics basketball season. The Northland squad took a 39-20 victory over Bay County in a game played at Houghton Lake High School on Thursday. In the second game at that doubleheader, the Northland JV boys team defeated the Bay County "B" team 21-14. Crawford County athletes competing in that game included Chris Wylie, Tom Ferguson, and Jerry Whaley.

The Tigercats are composed of Special Education students from Crawford, Ogemaw, Oscoda, and Roscommon counties and are sponsored by Area 4 Northland Special Olympics with donations from the general public. On February 21-22, the girls team will travel to East Lansing for the District Tournament to be held at M.S.U., and on Feb. 28 & March 1, the Northland teams will host 13 other teams from throughout northern Michigan at a tournament to be played at Roscommon High School.

Budgets That Work

Call Edwards
 Extension Home Economist

Do you suffer from budgeting blues? If so, you're not alone. A budget that looks good on paper often fails to work when you put it in action.

Following are the three most common budgeting mistakes:

- Forgetting to allow for those expenses that don't come up on a regular monthly basis - insurance premiums, seasonal clothing, vacations, holiday gifts, etc. When they do arrive, money budgeted for other items must be used. An emergency fund is a way to provide for these irregular expenses.

- Being unrealistic about expense figures. If you know you can't manage on $150 a month food, allow more than that amount in your budget.

- Budgets that are too vague. It's a good idea to have no more categories than you really need in a budget, but avoid using such broad categories that you really don't know where your money goes.

If you constantly overspend in a certain budget category, it's time to rework those budget figures and get more money into that troublesome space. If you really want to save but find you can't seem to do it with a budget, eliminate it from your budget - pay yourself first before you begin to spend for other items.

If you normally get a large income tax refund, consider adjusting your W-4 with your employer so that less is withheld. This will give you more money each month to work with.

Let's Talk Program at Mercy Thursday

On Feb. 20, at 7:00 p.m. Mercy Hospital in Grayling will present a very special Let's Talk About Program on "As Your Parents Grow Older." This program will be offered by Sr. Jean Umlor, RSM, and director of Amicare Home Health Services, North. Sr. Umlor has long been involved with older adult health care and with families trying to decide on alternatives that best meet the needs of their older parents. This program on the 20th is a synopsis of a more comprehensive program to be offered by Mercy Hospital in the Fall.

"As Your Parents Grow Older" speaks to the changing demographics of our society. Today we see many more multi-generational families. It is not uncommon for people in their sixties to have living parents in their 80's. Those people in their forties can expect their own parents to have an average life expectancy of 78 to 82. Advances in modern health care, more emphasis on self health care, exercise and proper nutrition have increased the average life expectancy. The number of people over 65 years of age will increase 30% by the year 2000. This implies a greater responsibility toward the care of this age group by families and community service agencies.

The program on Feb. 20th will cover varying aspects of the aging process, psychological changes, behavioral changes and chronic illness, sensory changes, alternative living arrangements and community resources. Knowledge of what services and resources are available can help children and their older parents to make plans for the future, plans that will assure financial, environmental and personal security. Persons interested in knowing more about this program may call Pat Hanson at 348-5461, ext. 120. There is no registration required for this program and no fee.

Grayling Volleyball Team Faces Championship Showdown

Grayling meets Rogers City Wednesday night, Feb. 19, in a showdown for first place in the Michigan Huron Shores Conference. Both teams are undefeated in the league and the winner will be crowned champion.

Grayling is also playing for a chance at state recognition, Rogers City, a perennial volleyball power, is ranked 8th in the state in Class C. Grayling has a better overall record at 17-5 than Rogers City and will likely be ranked if they come home Wednesday night with a win.

Grayling moved its league mark to 6-0 with a 15-3, 15-4, 16-14 win over St. Ignace last week. The Vikings were down 14-9 in the last game before winning 7 straight points. Shelly Denton led the team with 15 blocks and added 9 spikes. Her net play is leading to possible state recognition at the end of the season.

Julie Brooks and Jamie Kaiser led the setting for Grayling. Piper Ostrowski came through with some tough spikes in the close third game.

Sue Casler had 12/12 serving, Kathy Partin 13/16, Brooks 13/15, Denton 11/12, and Ostrowski 7/7.

Grayling played Gladwin Monday night at home. Grayling beat Class B Gladwin earlier in the year, and they were hoping for a tough match to prepare them with the championship game

Wednesday at Rogers City.

The J.V. squad handled St. Ignace 15-6, 16-14, 14-7. Jenny Monday led in spiking and serving. Jill Brackenbury, Cindy Sabin, and Carrie Trudgeon led in court play.

The J.V. team took fourth at a Big Rapids Invitational Saturday with a 5-3 mark in their pool. They lost two to Manistee to open the tournament then split with Fruit-pool and beat Mt. Pleasant and Kalkaska twice. Kalkaska had beaten Grayling earlier in the year.

Patty Trembley led the serving with 30 and led the team in blocks. Sabin connected for some good spikes. Brackenbury, Linda Goodale, and Sheryl Klinger led the setting. Sabin, Trudgeon, and Money led the defense.

5 GHS Wrestlers Advance to Regionals

Five Grayling High School wrestlers advanced to regional competition by winning medals at district action last Saturday.

Robert Johnson, 105 pounds, and Ward Jones, 145 pounds, won district titles. Both GHS wrestlers beat opponents they had lost to earlier in the year.

Johnson opened with a bye and then whipped Tom Fulton, of Roscommon, 16-0. He beat Bryan Mirkva, of Coleman 17-0 and beat Mike Jojnt, of Traverse City St. Francis, in the finals 11-9. Jojnt had defeated Johnson earlier in the year.

Jones started the tournament with a pin in 33 seconds over Jeff Smith, of Traverse City St. Francis. He then pinned Todd Friday, of Onaway, in 1:10. He defeated Jeff Faraboug, of Kalkaska, 18-14 in the finals.

Viking coach Don Ferguson said Faraboug had beaten Jones in the Traverse City All-Star Tournament earlier, but this time they switched strategy and Jones took the offensive away from him.

Fred Fisher, 132 pounds, Buck Monforton, 112 pounds, and Mark Lowe, 119 pounds, also advanced to regionals. Fisher and Monforton had seconds and Lowe took a third. The top four wrestlers advance.

Fisher opened with a pin over Wes Koclerhouse, of Traverse City St. Francis. He defeated Jim Titchnell, of Roscommon, 9-8 before losing to Paul Florenza, of Coleman in the finals.

Monforton beat Doug Hardley, of Traverse City St. Francis, 10-2 to start the day. He beat Dale Helsel, of Pine River, 19-4 before losing to Ron Noreyko, of Roscommon, 3-0 in the finals.

Mark Lowe beat Scott Hein, of Rogers City, 17-7 and lost to Scott Saxton, of Kalkaska. He then beat Greg Long, of Pine River 12-2 to take third.

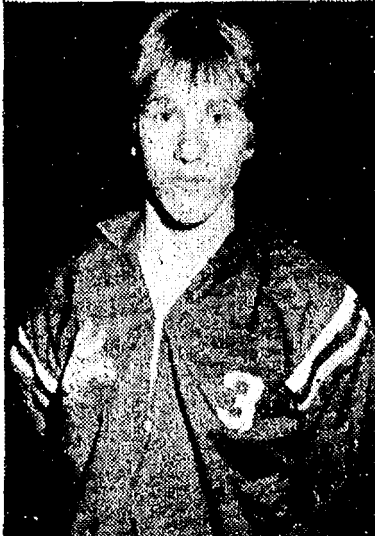

John Gay added team points for Grayling to help the matmen capture fourth place in standings among 16 teams. Roscommon won with 125 points followed by Kalkaska 123½, Traverse City St. Francis 115, and Grayling with 91.

Regional action is at Montebella Saturday.

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

The Inland Lakes and Streams Act (Act 346, Public Acts of 1972) requires a permit be obtained prior to dredging, filling or building a structure on the bottomlands of most inland water in the state.

The procedure for the issuance of the permit is as follows: The Permit application is received, logged and entered into a computer. It then goes through a review process which incorporates state and federal requirements for such projects. At this point, approximately 30% of the applications are returned to the individual involved due to incompleteness. These must be resubmitted and the process started over.

Those applications which are complete are determined to be a major or minor project. A minor project is any that involves a seawall of under 300 feet or under 300 cubic yards of fill or dredge material. These minor project applications are forwarded to the field for inspection and comment. Final action to issue, modify or deny the application is then made. Major project permits require that a public hearing be held. A 20-day notice is issued and at the end of that time a hearing is held and final action to issue, modify or deny is made. This process may take several months (there were 5068 applications in 1985 and 7000 anticipated in 1986).

In the past, I have approved extremely minor projects myself to save various people the hassle and delay inherent in the above process. I have learned the hard way that I can't do that anymore. Therefore all projects, no matter how minor, will require a permit. Applications are available from Conservation Officers and most DNR offices.

Vikings Run More in Losses

The Vikings wiped out a 13-point deficit in the fourth quarter against Johannesburg but lost 84-80 in overtime.

Both teams pushed the ball up the court in the high-scoring contest. Viking coach Butch Hayes was happy to see his team steal the ball 26 times and dish out 24 assists, but Grayling fell short on the free throw at 10 of 24. Better free throw shooting might have won the game in regulation.

Grayling led 15-13 and 32-28 after two periods. Johannesburg came back to take a 54-52 lead after three quarters. The Vikings were down by 13 with six minutes left before they started a run.

Grayling hit the first basket in overtime and Johannesburg hit their first three shots. The teams traded two buckets after that.

Tom Bacon led Grayling with 26, David Somerville had 14, and Jeff Palmer 11. Wayne Casler added 9, Kevin Hudson 7, Jason McEvers 7, and Todd Hull 6. Palmer led rebounders with 8.

Grayling tried running against St. Ignace but the Saints scored most of the lay-ups in the 94-61 game. St. Ignace had a 24-11 lead after eight minutes and increased it to 52-30 and 71-38 at the quarter marks.

One good point for the Vikings was better free throw shooting at 17 of 27.

Hull led Grayling with 21. Bacon had 16, Palmer 8, Somerville 5, Casler 4, Hudson 3, McEvers 3, and Todd Klinger 1. Klinger, Hudson, and McEvers each had 6 rebounds.

Rabbits 'R'R Habbits

Opening the meeting on February 10, 1986, was president of the club, Jeremie Harwood. Arriving at the meeting were club members, Leann Bishop, Jeremie Harwood, Terry Sorenson, Laura Renon, and Keith Bishop.

Teen leader, Tina Golnick, listened to the members describe their rabbits. Tina and Karen (adult leader) discussed and demonstrated the size and shape of a Mini Lop and Netherland Dwarf. Tina also made clear the time and date for proper registration of a rabbit. The meeting went quite well.

If anyone has any questions on rabbits or the clubs meeting, call Tina Golnick at 348-8361. Come join in, new members are welcome.

RSVP Reports

Aleta Thompson, Director
All 60 years of age or older senior citizens are invited to become an RSVP volunteer. You've spent a lifetime developing your skills, refining your talents, and building your knowledge and abilities. You're a rich resource and retirement means a great opportunity, both for you and for your community.

You're free to choose now-free to decide how to use your know-how and experience.

Now is the time to try RSVP!

We need material for volunteers making lap robes, just drop it off at the office. Volunteers are needed to help with small children at a day care in Roscommon County. A volunteer is needed to help in an office during this busy tax season. Crawford County needs a person to work as a receptionist for a few hours. Also a volunteer to help in the Remedial program at the Elementary school. Commission on Aging needs a driving to deliver meals on Thursday 3:15 p.m. pick up. Volunteers are needed to work on Quilts in both counties.

RSVP exists so that someone like you - retired, but with knowledge and energy to spare, can make a big difference where you're needed the most in your own community.

Call us at Crawford County 348-4341 and 348-8322; Roscommon County 366-5613.

"Due to inclement weather and the inability to provide a carnival, gate receipts were down." There were other events and concessions that we were restricted from providing as well. The Car Show was an "unqualified" success however. Even the constant rain did not deter 65 entrants from showing up for the first annual event.

Future plans call for a parcel of land near the intersection of M-93 and US 27 North to be donated to the County Fair so that we can not only continue to expand and improve our County Fair but we will not have the restrictions placed on us as we have had in the past at Hanson Hills.

A dinner-dance fund raising event is planned for the near future and our regular meeting at the County Courthouse on Thursday, 7:30 p.m. is open to the public. Come and lend a hand in the planning of your 1985 County Fair.

Social insecurity.
For many people, making ends meet today is no simple task. Like Alice in 'Through The Looking Glass', it takes all the running you can do to stay in the same place. When you think of how much more it will cost to live 10, 20, or 30 years from today, your Social Security check will seem like a drop in the bucket. That's why you've got to start now to build your financial security. And an Old Kent IRA is one great way to help you get there at the expense of the IRS.

The Old Kent difference.
An Old Kent IRA means more than a great way to save on taxes. It means professional help that's as near as your phone. It means options like competitive money market interest rates and FDIC-insured CDs. It means you can open your account with as little as $50. Or as much as $2000. No wonder so many people choose Old Kent for their IRA investments.

There's still time.
Tax filing time is not that far away. If you have any questions at all about IRAs, please stop in or call us so we can help you make your decision. There's no cost or obligation. But you will need to make your deposit by April 15, if you want to get a credit against your 1985 taxes. Remember, every dollar you put in an IRA means you'll be paying less to the IRS.

IRS and interest penalties may be required for early withdrawal.

Call us at 348-5435 if you need help in making your IRA decision for the 1985 tax year.

Monarch Butterfly

The ultimate flying machine may be neither bird nor plane, but the monarch butterfly. Monarchs save energy by riding thermals—rising air masses that lift them to favorable altitudes. They will fly anywhere, from ground level up to 7,000 feet, above many light airplanes. They will flap like birds, at an average 10 to 12 mph, or soar to conserve energy. When threatened, the butterflies can accelerate to 25 mph.

Adams Photography Gains Additional School Contract

Gary Blamer, of the Mio-AuSable School District, announced on Friday, February 14th, that the bid from Adams Photography for school pictures for the 1986-87 school year was accepted.

According to Mr. Blamer, "price was not the only consideration in going with Adams Photography's bid." "We checked with the building principals in the Crawford-AuSable system and were impressed with their favorable comments."

"We're pleased that the Mio Schools chose us over larger school picture companies because of our reputation. We'll continue to expand our school photography to neighboring districts as long as we can maintain our high standards of quality and service," said Adams.

THANK YOU

To all the participants of the 61st annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival Parade, a most sincere thank you.

It is extremely difficult to put together a winter parade. Because of the weather, there are a lot of different types of units that cannot participate.

This year, everyone seemed to be very cooperative. In my four years of chairing this parade, this was the greatest.

It takes people like yourselves, giving of your valuable time, to make an event so successful.

Thanks again,
Bill O'Brien
Chairman

TO THE CUSTOMERS OF MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS COMPANY

(Published by Direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission)

Case No. U-8379

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR APPROVAL OF TEMPORARY DEFERRAL OF COSTS OF REACQUIRING $3.19 SERIES PREFERENCE STOCK AND FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

On December 23, 1985, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company (MichCon) filed an application of an order approving, for accounting purposes, the temporary deferral of the costs of reacquiring its $3.19 Series Preference Stock and First Mortgage Bonds, 15% Series due November 15, 1991.

MichCon is a Michigan corporation with principal offices located at 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan and is engaged in distributing natural gas at retail to approximately one million customers, all within the State of Michigan.

MichCon represents that, to reduce its total capital as well as its cost of capital, on April 25, 1985, it redeemed its $3.19 Series Preference Stock at a redemption price of $28.19 per share. MichCon states that the unamortized capital stock expense applicable to the $3.19 Series Preference Stock at March 31, 1985 totaled $1,022,335 and redemption costs for trustee fees, legal costs and printing are estimated to total $50,000.

MichCon proposes that it be authorized to temporarily defer the premium on reacquisition of $3,160,684, the unamortized capital stock expense of $1,022,335 and the redemption expenses of $50,000 for accounting purposes. MichCon states that, while it is not seeking any ratemaking determination from the Commission in this case, in its next rate case filing it intends to propose amortizing the deferred charges in rates over an appropriate time period.

MichCon further represents that, to reduce its total capital and benefit ratepayers by reducing the cost of capital included in rates, on August 1, 1985, it redeemed all of its $60,000,000 of First Mortgage Bonds, 15% Series due November 15, 1991 at the redemption price of 108.78% of the principal amount. MichCon states that unamortized debt discount and expense totaled $94,375 and $432,191, respectively, and redemption costs for trustee fees, legal costs and printing are estimated to total $80,000.

MichCon proposes that it be authorized to temporarily defer the premium on reacquisition of $5,268,000, the unamortized debt discount of $94,375, the unamortized debt expense of $432,191 and the redemption expenses of $80,000 for accounting purposes. MichCon states that, while it is not seeking any ratemaking determination from the Commission in this proceeding, in its next rate case filing it intends to propose amortizing the deferred charges in rates over an appropriate time period.

MichCon states that it will deduct the premium, unamortized debt discount and expense and the redemption expenses in its 1985 tax return but the amortization of deferred costs to book expense will be in future years. Therefore, MichCon requests that it be authorized to apply interperiod tax allocation to the transaction by providing deferred taxes related to those deferred costs.

Jurisdiction is pursuant to 1909 PA 300, as amended, MCLA 462.2 et seq.; 1919 PA 419, as amended, MCLA 460.51 et seq.; 1939 PA 3, as amended, MCLA 460.1 et seq.; 1969 PA 306, as amended, MCLA 24.201 et seq.; and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 1979 Administrative Code, R 460.11 et seq.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT:

A. A public hearing in this matter will be held at 9:30 a.m. on February 28, 1986 in the offices of the Commission, Mercantile Building, 6545 Mercantile Way, Lansing, Michigan, which hearing will be in the nature of a prehearing conference and will be held for the purpose of considering matters which will expedite this proceeding. Any interested persons may attend the hearing and participate, subject to the provisions of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure.

B. Any person seeking to intervene in accordance with Rule 11 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Commission shall file with the Commission, on or before February 24, 1986, an original and 12 copies of a petition to intervene, together with Proof of Service upon the Office of General Counsel, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, 500 Griswold Street, Detroit, Michigan 48226.

Subparagraph (2) of said Rule 11 provides as follows: "(2) A petition to intervene shall set out clearly and concisely the facts supporting the petitioner's alleged right or interest, the grounds of the proposed intervention, and the position of the petitioner in the proceeding, so as fully and completely to advise the parties and the commission of the specific issues of fact or law to be raised or controverted." (Emphasis added)

The Commission will require strict compliance with the above-quoted rule.

Participates In NATO Exercise

Army Cpl. Peter H. McBroome, son of Paul H. and Elizabeth McBroome of Rural Route 1, Frederic, was involved in a NATO-sponsored exercise by participating in the Army's return of forces to Germany (REFORGER) and the Air Force's Crested Cap exercises.

The exercises are designed to develop uniformity of doctrine, standardize procedures for rapid response to a crisis and demonstrate solidarity in commitment to NATO goals and objectives.

McBroome is an artillery fire-direction specialist with the 37th Field Artillery at Fort Sill, Okla.

He is a 1981 graduate of Dearborn High School, Mich.
